

1860 Floyd Township, Johnson County, Arkansas Census Analysis

This document analyzes the 1860 census data for Floyd Township to reconstruct the neighborhood of Spencer Horner and identify potential individuals involved in his killing.

Horner Household

- Homer, John T. - Page 982, Line 1
- Homer, Susan - Page 982, Line 2
- Homer, Lewis - Page 982, Line 3
- Homer, Mary - Page 982, Line 4
- Homer, Spencer - Page 982, Line 5
- Homer, Isabella - Page 982, Line 6
- Homer, Russell - Page 982, Line 7

Immediate Neighbors

The following households are listed on the same page (982) as the Horner family and are considered their immediate neighbors:

- Harmon Family:
 - Samuel Harmon (Head)
 - Elizabeth Harmon
 - William Harmon
 - Isabella Harmon
 - James Harmon
 - Samuel Harmon
 - George Harmon
 - Wade Harmon
 - Issac Harmon
- Bowen Family:
 - John Bowen (Head)
 - Oma Bowen

- Spencer Bowen
- John Bowen
- Gott Family:
 - Richard Gott (Head)
 - Isabella Gott
- Beaseley Family:
 - J D Beaseley (Head)
 - Elizabeth Beaseley
 - A W Beaseley
 - Angeline Beaseley
 - William Beaseley
- Pelts Family:
 - J W Pelts (Head)
 - Elizabeth Pelts
 - Benjamin Pelts
 - Celia Pelts
 - Joseph Pelts
 - William Pelts
 - Benjamin Pelts
- Clouds, Charlotte

Analysis

This initial analysis identifies the immediate neighbors of the Horner family in 1860. The next step is to research these individuals and their families to determine if any had connections to the 7th Arkansas Cavalry or were known Confederate sympathizers. The presence of multiple military-aged males in these households is a key factor to investigate.